

The Mini Page: NaCl — It's Elemental!

A Salty Tale

Week of 2/24/14

CCSS: nonfiction reading: science: chemistry

Review figurative language before taking quiz.

1. Which example of figurative language is used in the first sentence comparing salt to a musician?

- A alliteration
- B metaphor
- C onomatopoeia
- D simile

2. Which best completes the graphic organizer?

- A the only edible rock
- B how to season food
- C metals in salt
- D uses for salt

3. What effect does salt have on water?

- A It raises water's boiling temperature.
- B It lowers water's boiling temperature.
- C It raises water's freezing temperature.
- D It lowers water's freezing temperature.

4. Which is most like the relationship below?

Salt of the earth : good person

- A NaCl : metal
- B salt away : save in a safe place
- C de-ice : road safety
- D sea water : evaporation

5. Where does the United States get most of its salt?

- A from ice
- B from plastics
- C ocean evaporation
- D underground mines

Ans: 1b/2d/3d/4b/5d